VOL. XXXI. UKIAH, MENDOCINO CO., CAL.: FRIDAY, MARCH 1, 1907. 36

TAX SALE CASE WAS AFFIRMED

County clerk McCowen was officially notified this week that the supreme court has affirmed the judgment of the local superior court in the action of T L Johnson, plaintiff vs John Taylor as administrator of the estate of W H Johnson, deceased.

This action was begun in 1902 and in his complaint the plaintiff alleged that he was the owner of 160 acres of redwood land in T 21 N, R 16 W, in this county and that the defendants claimed an interest therein which they did not have. The object of the action was to obtain a decree of court adjudging that plaintiff was the owner as he alleged.

The trial occurred before Judge White on October 28, 1903, and it was shown in evidence that the defendants are the heirs of one W H Johnson who was in 1903 the owner of the land. It appeared that he failed to pay the state and county taxes on the land for that year and that on July 7th, 1894, it was sold to the state of California for those taxes, which then amounted to $9.39. On July 7th, 1899 the tax collector deeded the land to the state without giving Johnson or his heirs any notice of such deed and on May 3, 1902 the plaintiff bought the state's title for $156.06 and received a deed therefor. The The land was worth much more than the plaintiff paid for it.

Judge White held that the state never got a title to the land, for the reason that no notice of its application for a deed was given to W H Johnson or his heirs and that therefore T L Johnson had no title to the land. The supreme court holds that the trial judge was correct in every particular. The most interesting feature of the case is that under it no sale to the state for taxes made prior to 1895 can ever result in depriving the owner of his property until further action is taken by the legislature.

RAILROAD NEWS FROM THE COAST

The information has come to the Beacon from private sources to the effect that the Northwestern Pacific Company will begin active railroad construction on the Fort Bragg and Southeastern road from Wendling to the Sonoma valley at the very earliest possible date, says the Mendocino Beacon. It is said the first dirt will be moved at the Cloverdale end of the road although indications point to the road touching first at Healdsburg following the route outlined in these columns a week or so ago, i e, via Rancheria and Dry creek valleys. In that event Cloverdale will be left to one side. The Dry creek route will take the railroad near the timber belt a greater distance and will afford an easier grade than the one by way of Yorkville. The suspense of the anxious ones concerning the route to be taken will be set at rest as soon as the weather becomes settled, a few weeks hence.

As the Wendling road is to be merely a feeder for the main line running from Eureka it is claimed that connection with the Caspar and Fort Bragg roads will also be made this summer. The building of those connecting links means that either the present mills lying contiguous to to the road must increase their cutting capacity or new mills must be built to meet the new demand. Dry kilns of large dimensions will have to be erected and seasoned lumber prepared for rail shipment to the eastern market.

Captain A F Payson, of the Santa Fe, has been selected for the presidency of the Northwestern Pacific railroad vice E E Calvin resigned. The later was made vice-president. Vigorous construction work, under the supervision of these gentlemen, will be pushed on the extension from Willits to Pepperwood as soon as weather conditions will permit.

CUPID SELECTS A BELLE

Mae Thomas and Frederick Otis Todd were married Sunday morning at the home of the brides parents, Assessor and Mrs M A Thomas, in this city. The ceremony was performed by Rev C C Thompsom in the presence of the immediate relatives and friends of the contracting parties. After a dainty wedding dinner the happy couple took the south bound train for their new home at Thermal, Riverside county.

The bride is the oldest daughter of Assessor and Mrs Thomas and is a charming and accomplished young lady. She was also one of the most popular school teachers in the county. The groom is a prosperous rancher of of Riverside county where he owns a splendid farm.

WHISKEY JACK WRITES AGAIN

PINOLEBIL, Feb twenty seven times —Mr Obil Whlte: I dont writ for some time now caus I been watchit riffle for samon. I bin go down to Cloverdale las Saturday for excursion and have pretty good time. Say, if you got any old papers I wish you pleas save it for me caus my wife jennie like readit that Thaw trial. Say, I want to tellit to you that I don thinkit right like Ukiah boy do in Cloverdale too.

I been shame for thinkit when I see thos litl boy from Ukiah down to that Cloverdale fair shakit Klondike and drinkit beer jus like old folks. I keepit still and dont tellit to nobody that I been com from Ukiah. Pretty bad for old man drinkit and shakit klondyke and heep bad for Indian. But what you spect of Indian man and Indian boy when he see white boys feelit pretty good. Indian man and indian boy like to be alle same white boy— he drinkit too. That the way Joe Butch tellit to me.

I see them Japan boy can go to public school, why not indian boy? Indian boy been here first and bout same color. Indian boy have to go to own school. I dont think that fair. Indian man and Indian boy workin hop field just same as Japan boy. Indian man and indian boy smoke cigarette and buy whiskey just same Japan boy only difference Indian man and Indian boy some time tell truth. Japan boy never. Japan boy eatm rice. Indian boy eatm buckeye and masneeter berry. Maybe white man rather have his boy learn eatm rice caus it dont been cheaper. What you thinkit.

I see Tom Charton and Bil Chisel wantit man to have stificate fore he can be hoss mokanic and drivit nail in shoe. I guess maybe he have to showit stificate to hoss. I guess that been pretty good law but been heep hard on injun aintit. I guess maybe it be man must have stificate for anything. I guess maybe Bud Smit and Henny Marks no got stificate for fixit mud hole in street ainit. I hope maybe he git one of those things pretty quick now for fixit street. Bill Chisel think every body ought have stificat cept undertaker man caus he say what use when man dead already. Bil never been dead but I guess he know anyhow.

Well I dont been goin write some more this time. JACK

D D S—Some man say this cause Mr Clumbus scover Indian and Mr T Roosevelt scover Jap. Maybe Indian can get Jake Wurtemberg or some man to scover him again beforeit been too late. J

Candy Factory And Ice Cream Parlors

Dan Smirles and company have rented the Gracy building next door to their restaurant on state street and will open a candy factory and ice cream parlors as soon as the repairs to the new building are completed. The building has been adorned by a new front.

MANUAL TRAINING IN THE UKIAH GRAMMAR SCHOOL

BY PROF. C. D. FLOWERS

The manual training work is now firmly established in the Ukiah grammar school. We have a wood working shop very well equipped We have a turning lathe, a combined gig saw and circular saw, a grind stone, a good miter box, a cabinet makers bench, three home made benches and lumber on hand for three more which are partly made, bench tools for twenty boys, besides numerous other tools. Over one hundred boys per week take advantage of this shop work. The girls are engaged in basket-making, bead work, and sewing. This work takes but one hour per week of the pupils time. Those who are taking the work have done their grade work well. From our short experience we are well satisfied with the results.

Financially we are on a firm base. Our tools are all paid for, and we still have money on hand. This state of affairs was made possible by the generosity of Mr Frederick W West of Seattle, Washington. Mr West has presented us with twenty-five dollars lately. This with the one hundred dollars given a year ago makes Mr West's gifts in cash amount to one hundred and twenty-five dollars. He has also given us five acres of land valued at five hundred dollars. This land is just west of the observatory below town. The manual training department has therefore been named The Raymond F West Manual Training Department in memory of Mr West's son who lost his life in Eel river.

Mrs A T Stickney has presented the school with a printing press. This press cost in San Francisco thirty-six dollars. The type was purchased from other funds on hand. The entire outfit cost us about sixty-five dollars. The pupils will soon issue a small magazine containing only their own work.

We wish now to call your attention to another need of our school. For a number of years the pupils and teachers have been collecting material for a museum. In this they have been quite successful but the discouraging feature of it was their inability to care for the material after procuring it. We need cases with glass doors and also show cases, but we have no funds. Believing that the people of Ukiah School District would be willing to help, we have engaged Mr A J Waterhouse to give a recital Mar. 8th at York & Cleland's hall. Mr Waterhouse is one of the best entertainers in the state and those who hear him will get more than their money's worth, and besides, help to make the Ukiah Grammar School Museum one of the best in the county. The pupils will do some singing and give you an idea of their progress in this way.

HEIRS LAW OVER WOMAN'S ESTATE

An action was commenced Monday in the superior court of this county by Sarah C Vann, Oscar J Broaddus and others through their attorneys McNab & Hirsch and D W Burchard, against M M James, A J James and G P James for the purpose of having the court decree that the plaintiffs are the owners of an undivided one-half interest in the lands described in the complaint. The plaintiffs and defendants are the heirs of Mary F Broaddus who died at Willits last October at the age of 101 years.

It is set forth in the complaint that on October 27th, 1904, the said Mary F Broaddus was totally blind and had been so totally blind for ten years prior thereto, that she was infirm in body and her intellect impaired, and that while in such condition the defendants and their mother, Mary A James caused said Mary F Broaddus to execute a deed to said Mrs James of all of her property, which deed was without consideration, and that said Mary A James and the defendants took advantage of the said Mary F Broaddus by reason of her mental weakness and physical infirmities in securing her mark or cross to said deed.

It is sought by action to set aside the deed. The property involved consists of 120 acres in Willits valued at over $7000. The defendants are entitled by law to the other undivided one-half interest in said property, said Mary F Broaddus having had two children, and said defendants being the issue of one of said children, now deceased.

The Proudest Man In Town

Attorney John L McNab is now the proud father of a bouncing boy. The little fellow was born Monday and both mother and son are reported to be doing nicely. John's smile is now broader than ever.

WILL REPRESENT LOCAL BREWERY

W H Ives, who for several years past has been local agent for Grace Brothers of Santa Rosa, is to handle the product of the Ukiah Brewing company in the future. He will have the agency for the Celebrated Mendocino Lager for this city and will deliver the goods in bottles or barrels as his customers wish. Mr Ives long experience in the beer and ice business in this city make him a valuable man for the local brewery and he is already acquainted with his prospective patrons.

His careful attention to business in the past has made him a favorite with patrons and the success of the Mendocino Brewing company with local sales is insured from the start. As it will be a couple of weeks before the new beer is on the market Mr Ives will make his tour of the state in the interests of the Eagles as intended. After his constant application to business for the past six years he is deserving of a vacation and the best wishes of his friends will go with him on the trip.

Barbee Moves To Berkeley

Prof J F Barbee and family moved to Berkeley this week where they will reside in the future. Mr Barbee has accepted the agency of one of the best known life insurance companies and will devote his time in future to this and other business interests.

Large Wild Cat Killed

Tom Chase spent several days this week at Largo with his hounds after coyotes on the Crawford ranches. A large wild cat weighing fifty pounds was treed Tuesday morning and was spotted by Curtis Crawford. The cat had been raising havoc with the lambs.

Col Abe Marks paid San Francisco a business visit this week.

TIMBER SUIT IN SONOMA COUNTY

In a complaint filed in the superior court of Sonoma county yesterday, the Empire Redwood company, alleges that H Peterson, F B Glynn and others, the two former being the well known owners of the large mills at Del Mar, have cut down timber on the Gualala that river does not belong to them, and will continue to do so unless restrained by the court says the Santa Rosa Democrat. The alleged cutting of the timber was done in January and the present month. The plaintiff, through its attorneys, McNab and Hirsch, ask the court to grant an injunction and prevent the defendants from further using their hatchets on timber it claims to own Judge Seawell granted a temporary injunction pending the hearing of the action.

MACK SWAIN CO WELL RECEIVED

The Mack Swain Theatre company have been playing in Mark's opera house this week to crowded houses. It is really the best company that has ever favored Ukiah with a visit and the fact that they are playing at popular prices gives everyone a chance to attend every performance—in fact most of the people who have bought seats and reserved them for the whole stand.

Space forbids special mention of the players but each is an artist in his line. Mr Swain and Mrs Swain in the title roles are splendid and have made decided hits with the audiences. The repertoire of the company is extensive—a fortunate fact for this city as the limited proportions of the old hall make it impossible for them to put on some of their best plays as the stage is so small that their scenery, and they have a car of it, cannot be used.

They are therefore compelled to select only such plays as can be staged with a limited amount of scenery or the old stuff that is already on the stage. The Rose city quartet is deserving of special mention and has captured the hearts of the audiences. They are applauded to the echo each night and the audience would never tire of their melodies. In fact their part of the program is worth the price of admission. They were presented with a silver champagne cooler by the Eureka Aerie F O E, which has been on exhibition at the Palm, as a tribute for the part they took in the funeral services of the late George Moore formerly of this city.

Mr Swain states that he will have Ukiah on his circuit and it is safe to say that at the next appearance of his company will be better received than the present one if such a thing is possible. Mr Swain has secured the lease on the new opera house that it is proposed to build in Santa Rosa and is very anxious that a large opera house should be erected in this city with the same end in view. To-night is the last of this engagement and the play will be a verv laughable comedy.

Will Sue County

Former County School Superintendent J F Barbee announces that he will commence suit against the county to determine the legality of his claim for $1907 for services on the board of education. The bill was rejected by the board of supervisors at the last meeting. This claim is made under the county government act which it is alleged allows the school superintendent $5 a day as member of the board of education and $5 a day as secretary while that body is in session.

Match Game Of Basket Ball

The basket ball team of the local high school will meet the team from Petaluma tomorrow night at York & Clelands hall. The game is expected to be very closely contested, with the advantage in favor of the local team.

CITRUS FAIR A GRAND SUCCESS

Contrary to the promises of the day before, last Saturday was pleasant and was a perfect day for an outing. Consequently over 800 Ukiahites congregated at the local depot and boarded the train for a visit to Cloverdale to add their quota to the success of the citrus fair. Nearly 200 more pleasure seekers were picked up at the way stations so that when Cloverdale was reached the fifteen cars carried 1000 people.

The citrus fair was conceeded to have been the best of all those given during the past fifteen years. The exhibits were very pretty and some of them were actually works of art in olives and citrus fruits. It is easy to see that such an exhibition of the products of the valley must be of great advantage to Cloverdale in securing new settlers and the people of our neighboring town are to be congratulated on their energy and progress as both are very essential qualities in making a success of such a great undertaking.

One of the exhibits which attracted the attention of the visitors from this city was that of Hugh Bradley consisting of maps and architectural drawings. The work was very creditable and was some what of a surprise to many of the friends of Mr Bradley who did not know of his ability in this line.

Everyone thoroughly enjoyed the day and all are anxious for next year to arrive so that the citrus fair may once more be visited. A word is also due the Cloverdale people for the courteous manner in which they treated the visitors. It seemed to be their special endeavor that the Ukiahites should have an enjoyable time and they succeeded admirably.

COME AND HEAR PROF. BIOLETTI

In behalf of the Mendocino County Viticultural association W F Willcox has been corresponding with Prof. F T Bioletti of the University of California and is in receipt of a letter from that gentleman stating that he will be in Ukiah March 2nd for the purpose of addressing the people of this section interested in grape culture. He will be accompanied by Frank Sweet of Martinez, one of the most experienced grape growers in the state.

To this end a meeting of the Viticultural association is called for 2 p m on March 2nd at the court house. A full attendance of the members of the association and parties interested in grape culture is therefore requested. Business matters pertaining to the association will be taken up for the first half hour and the addresses will therefore commence at 2:30.

Prof Bioletti is a recognized authority and the association is very fortunate in having secured such an able man. The occasion is one that connot be overlooked by parties interested in grape culture, especially those who are just putting out vineyards. In the infancy of the industry in this county it is essential that people going into grape culture should obtain as much information as possible from reliable sources.

Rebuilding Fast

J D Wellman, the wellknown Orrs sawmill man, visited San Francisco last week to purchase some supplies. He reports that the city is building up very fast and that he believes that in a few years the effects of the earthquake and fire will have disappeared. He states that the business men state that they are doing a great deal more business than before the fire and the congested condition of the business houses bears them out in the statement.

his head mournfully. It was new tactics for him. Like a little girl, May Percy climbed on his knee, put her arms about his neck and her cheek against his. "Not for anything, dad," she whispered.

John Wilmerding looked on and wished himself a thousand miles away. The father began to talk once more, piteously, beseechingly, mournfully.

"It's my honor, little sweetheart, you see. The Percy honor—think of that. I pledged Sir Elmer my word that you should marry John. The happy union of you two children was to be the fruit of our lifelong frendship. We pledged ourselves to it and even drew up an agreement. When you were girl and boy you were sweethearts, and then you both promised us that you would marry. Don't you remember that, May?"

"Yes, dad, yes," she said.

He waited, silent, for some time. Then he began hesitatingly:

"If—if there is any other, girlie. If—if you are in love with another and he is a gentleman of good stock and fortune, I will not come between you. I would even give up my cherished plans of a lifetime to see you married happily to a brave gentleman. Are you now in love with any one else?"

She sat up suddenly on his knee and looked at him with her eyes very wide.

"Why, no, father. Whom could I love? Captain Thorncliffe will marry Ethel, Sir Harvey Johnston simpers, James Bate is a prig. There are no other gentlemen in the neighborhood."

Sir Henry gave a satisfied grunt. "Right you are, dearie, every time. You say, yourself. there are no other gentlemen here. Certainly I know of none eligible. Why, now, sweetheart, can't you marry John? Make him happy. Let me keep my word to my dead friend. Preserve the Percy honor. That will save your old dad's heart, and you will be happy besides."

With a suspiciously husky gulp the old man turned to John Wilmerding.

"You young fool," he exclaimed fiercely, "talk for your own happiness. I've done enough for you."

Then, sitting on her father's knee, with her arms about his neck, May Percy listened to the avowal of the childhood lover, whom she had repulsed a dozen times. He made it with all the stilted stiffness of a frightened, embarrassed Englishman. When he had finished, the girl buried her head on her father's shoulder.

"Yes, dad, I'll do it for you," she whispered. And the only betrothal kiss was Sir Henry's.

"The agreement gives me two years, and I intend to have every day of it," she said, and to that the men were bound to agree. When she started to go, Sir John tried to kiss her. But he fell back quickly, for she had snatched up Sir Henry's riding crop and brandished it in his face.

"When you are my husband my lips will be yours—possibly," she said, and strode out with her head very high. Sir John could only curse under his breath, while Sir Henry roared at the Percy spirit.

"She's a girl worth having, my boy, and we'll announce it at the birthday party, that you may be sure of the prize."

In the great hall Mistress Percy met her friend Ethel Courtleigh, still flushed from dancing.

"Why were you not at the lesson, May? M. Dubarre was teaching a new dance. He says we must both practice it this afternoon."

"I don't intend to practice. There's no use in it, and I'm tired," answered May Percy crossly.

The Sunday School Contest

As was anticipated by some, Healdsburg did some hustling last week, and consequently led in two points. A number of things combined to lessen the attendance of the Ukiah school last Sunday, and at a time when Healdsburg brought out the largest attendance they have ever had. They have evidently made up their minds that in order to win they must keep ahead, and are going to make strenuous efforts to that end. Meanwhile the Ukiah people are waking themselves up early these mornings in order to get used to it by Sunday so as to be at Sunday school on time. Rain or shine, the attendance must be above the 200 mark next Sunday or lose to Healdsburg in the general average. If the sun is shining brightly the Christian Sunday School thermometer in Ukiah will hover right near the 300 mark next Sundry. Come and see. It will do you good. We have a place and a welcome for you. Last Sunday—Ukiah, 164 present, 12 new pupils, $25.42 offering. Healdsburg, 211 present, 31 new pupils, $17.30 offering.

ESTEEMED LADY PASSES AWAY

Mrs. Allie Mohr died at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Cox, of this valley Saturday. The deceased had been ailing for some time and had gone with her husband to Los Angeles in hopes that the change of climate would prove beneficial. She grew worse and it was decided to bring her to this city. The trip proved to be too much for her and she died within a quarter of an hour after she reached her parents residence.

The deceased was about thirty years old and the husband, one son, her mother and father and three brothers and four sisters survive her. The funeral took place Monday the services being conducted by Rev Burton at the family residence. The deceased had been a highly esteemed employee of the local state hospital and the pall bearers were employees of that institution.

News From the North

LAYTONVILLE, Feb 26—C A Irvine and Supervisor Saxon of Willits passed through this vicinity last Saturday on their way to Covelo on business. Mr Irvine always makes it a point to reach Cahto on a meeting night of the Cahto Odd Fellows. Some thirty five summers ago when Mr Irvine was a trifle younger than he is now Cahto lodge was instituted and Mr Irvine was one of the candidates initiated on that memorable night and ever since, through thick and thin, sunshine and shadow, he has had a warm place in his heart for old Cahto lodge No 206. Last Saturday night was a stormy night and but few were in attendance but that few were optimistic and enthusiastic. Those present were: Jules Northcutt, George Vassar, Grant Vassar, Augustus Vassar, C A Irvine, Louis Smith and Supervisor Saxon of Willits.

Miss Louise Hoadley of Chico opened the Farley school last Monday, Feb. 25th, with fourteen pupils present and two trustees. Several young rebels attend this school and the trustees were in evidence, for the same purpose that the "twa" Japanese warships prowled around the Sandwich Islands while the San Francisco school board was in conference with the President—as a gentle reminder of force. Miss Hoadley is well pleased with the school and thinks that love and kindness can conquer the most unruly, but the experienced trustees begged leave to differ and expressed an opinion that a stout club swung by strong hands was a strong power for good. They also assured Miss Hoadley that they would fight her battles and if it wasn't their duty they would make it their duty. They further assured her that should any trouble occur all she had to do was to notify them and they would immediately leave their plows in the furrow and go up there, take the young revolutionists out in Mr Pembertor's forty acre field and take severe pains with them. But they are a husky lads, daring and unafraid and the trustees are a little adverse to "dig in" untrained so in the meantime pending a Casus Belli they will take a course in Jiu Jitsu, the Japanese mode of wrestling.

Edwards Bros To Move

Edwards Bros have leased the store vacated by Lucas Bros from E S Ames for a term of ten years and expect to move into their new quarters about the first of April. The place will have a new and modern front and be thoroughly renovated. Edwards Bros report that they will run their shop on the plan of a market when they get in their new quarters. In addition to meat they will also handle poultry and vegetables.

Band Entertainment A Success

The entertainment given by the band boys last Friday night was a complete success and was well patronized. The musical specialties were especially pleasing and the long waltz was thoroughly enjoyed. The band boys proved themselves stayers and succeded in dancing every one down. The long dance will prove a great attraction to their entertainments in future.

BERKELEY AFTER STATE CAPITAL

DELEGATES ENTHUSIASTIC IN ADVOCATING REMOVAL OF THE STATE CAPITAL.

Well-Planned Movement of Leading Citizens of Alameda County To Make a Strong Fight.

Sacramento, Feb. 21.—That the announced determination of Berkeley to secure the removal of the State capital to that city is no joke, but a well-planned movement of the leading citizens and business men of Alameda county was made evident yesterday when the Legislative Committee of the twenty members appointed at a mass meeting held in Berkeley Tuesday night, arrived here and began arguments with members of the Legislature, Governor Gillett and Lieutenant Governor Porter. The boomers are enthusiastic in advocacy of their plan.

They arranged for the presentation of a bill in both houses of the Legislature calling for the fixing of Berkeley as the capital city of California. At the same time a concurrent resolution containing an invitation to the entire Legislature and wives of the members to visit Berkeley on a special train at the expense of the Chamber of Comerce of that city will be presented.

In discussing the proposition, F. W. Foss, president of the Berkeley Chamber of Commerce, said:

"The measure must first pass both houses of the Legislature by a two-thirds vote and then receive a majority indorsement from the people at the next general election. We are confident that the bill will pass the Legislature, and we are prepared to wage a campaign for a year and a half throughout the State, setting forth the plain business considerations that seem to us to absolutely demand this change."

COON CAUSES TROUBLE

TWO MEN NEARLY KILLED AS RESULT OF A TERRIFIC EXPLOSION OF DYNAMITE.

Redding, Cal., Feb. 22.—An inquisitive coon caused the explosion of a fifty pound box of dynamite on the north side of Tom Head Mountain yesterday, in the Copper mining district. A big hole was torn in the side of the mountain, large trees were uprooted and the prospecting camp of Max Chester and Harry Parker was blown to atoms. Chester and Parker escaped. The box of dynamite was set on a high stump at the side of a tall tree, twenty feet from the camp. Chester and Parker were higher up on the mountain prospecting copper ledges. Looking towards camp they saw a ring-tailed animal on the tree. They yelled, and the coon, frightened, made a leap, landing on the dynamite and kicking the box off the stump, causing the dynamite to explode as it struck the ground. What was left of the coon was picked up fifty yards away by one of the prospectors as they were beating a retreat.

The fragment was three inches of the coon's tail.

WAR FOR TRADE PREDICTED.

Secretary Shaw Predicts Overplus of Manufactures in United States.

Chicago, Feb. 22.—"The time is coming when our manufactures will outgrow the country and men may be turned out of the factories," said Secretary of the Treasury Shaw in an address last night before the students of the University of Chicago. "One of these fine days we are going to have an excess of manufactures," he said. "The factories are multiplying more rapidly than our trade, and we are going to have a surplus shortly. Then will come the great danger to the country. For the foreigners will be hard to deal with. The last century was the worst in the world's history for wars. I look for this century to bring forth the greatest conflict ever waged in the world. It will be a war for the markets. God grant there may be no bloodshed."

Mutual Life Reform Ticket Swamped

New York, Feb. 21.—That the committee of policyholders who hoped to reform the Mutual Life Insurance Company were utterly swamped by the administration ticket at the polls last November, was made evident today when the election inspectors gave out the results of the preliminary count.

The official figures are as follows: Administration ticket, 199,182; United Committee ticket, 69,161; Selected Taylor ticket, 2,417.

Bliss Native Herbs

THIS famous household remedy is not a "patent medicine" in any sense—but a delightful combination of roots, herbs and barks such as our grand parents used for Rheumatism, Indigestion, Torpid Liver, Blood Diseases and a run down system. Its simple ingredients are as harmless as milk. It contains no minerals, no alcohol, no poison of any kind. Bliss Native Herbs Tablets are free from coating and begin their healing work as soon as swallowed. Many people in this locality have used them. Many more testify in our Almanac, to be had free of cost. Each box contains 200 tablets for $1.00 and a printed Guarantee to cure or refund the money. The medicine is not sold in drug-stores, but only by

HARRIMAN TELLS OF STOCK DEALS

WIZARD OF RAILROAD MANIPULATION BELIEVES COURT DECISION UNJUST.

Unfolds Amazing Tale of Mythical Millions—How Railways Were Bought for Nothing.

New York, Feb. 26.—The investigation of the financial operations of the Harriman group through the Union Pacific Railroad, undertaken by the Interstate Commerce Commission in behalf of the United States Government, was resumed yesterday at the Federal building.

Edward H. Harriman, president of the Union Pacific, was the first witness, and under examination by Frank Kellogg began an explanation of the financial operations of his company, commencing with the issue of $100,000,000 of convertible bonds in 1901 for the purchase of stock in the Southern Pacific and Northern Pacific.

The inquiry developed the fact that after the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States dissolving the Northern Securities Company the interest of the Union Pacific Company in that corporation was returned to the in shares of the Northern Pacific and Great Northern Companies. These subsequently were sold, as Harriman explained, because the revenues derived from them were limited, and the proceeds were invested in stock of the Illinois Central, the Santa Fe and the Baltimore & Ohio companies.

"In the first place," said Harriman, "we had as the result of the Northern Pacific purchase $82,000,000 of Northern Securities stock at a cost of $79,000,000. Our annual report, our statements, all show that, We were forced to take, by the decision of the Supreme Court unjustly—it may have been legal—Great Northern, which we did not want, and a lesser amount of Northern Pacific than we had deposited with the Northern Securities Company, and for which we received the Northern Securities stock.

"At that time that stock—the Great Northen and the Northern Pacific—was given to us, forced upon us, it had a market value of about $100,000,000. I will go back just a minute. We had subscribed in the meantime to $3,000,000 of Great Northern stock, which had been offered to the stockholders, making the total cost of the Great Northern and Northern Pacific about $82,000,000. We held it until the market price increased in value to nearly $150,000,000. We sold some of it gradually as it went up, but at that value the returns from the Northern Pacific and Great Northern were less than 3 per cent on the stock we held. Therefore, we concluded that it was better to sell the stocks and invest the same money in other securities that would give us greater returns."

DEATH FOR NIGHT FOOTPADS.

Bill Provides for Execution of Convicted Highwaymen.

Sacramento, Feb. 22.—If the Governor is of the same opinion as a majority of the Legislature the death penalty for after dark highwaymen will soon be a law. The passage of the bill in the Senate yesterday places it before the chief executive. The measure had its inspiration, or its aspect of necessity, from the reign of crime, particularly hold-ups, in San Francisco.

SPAIN PREPARES FOR STORK.

Elaborate Clothing Made by Nuns for the Expected Heir.

London, Feb. 25.—Concerning the preparations for the expected royal heir of Spain, advices received here show that the preparations for its reception are nearing completion. The cradle in which Alfonso XII slept will lull the little newcomer to rest as it lies beneath hand-embroidered coverlets of white silk, garlanded in rosebuds and butterflies.

The Spanish nuns have been busy carrying out the king's wishes that all the baby's clothes shall be of Spanish make. Weaves of the finest silk, flannel and nainsook have been made into garments by the nuns and delicate lace has been added to them. The royal crown of Spain has been worked in relief on all the garments. Many of the trimmings date back to the time of Ferdinand VII. Irish lace will be used lavishly on the christening dress.

To Prospective Grapemen

"The dying of young vines which have never borne is, at least in part explained by the weakness due the use of cuttings taken from vines impoverished by over production. This emphasizes the necessity of careful choice of cuttings recommended in circular of 26 of this station."—Frederick T Bioletti of Berkeley in Pacific Rural Press, Oct, 27, 1906.

The above has proven true in my exporience of 11 years in the vineyard business. A good strong butt cutting will produce a strong bearing vine. My vineyard being in Mendocino county and young vines.
